Att: Alva Smith RE: MUR 4830

Dear Sirs:

I am in receipt of your communication of October 30 accusing me of violating campaign finance laws.

As I understand it, I am accused of making a pre-primary contribution to Tom Udall's congressional campaign after the primary. I enclose copies of the cancelled checks covering all the contributions I made to Mr. Udall's campaign. As you will note, the first check is for $500.00, dated May 4, 1998, about a month before the primary. The second check, in the amount of $1000.00, is dated August 19, 1998 and was intended for Mr. Udall's general election campaign.

Both these contributions are entirely within the law. It is clear that the New Mexico Republicans have filed a bogus complaint against me, and, likely, against Mr. Udall's campaign. If this is the case, I hope they will be punished for wasting everyone's time.

Please call me at the number below if you should have any questions.

Sincerely

Stuart Woods

For instance, we have seen how the concept of "the good life" has been redefined by modern society. In the past, it was often associated with religious or philosophical ideals. Today, however, it is more commonly understood in terms of material wealth and personal fulfillment.
